Describe an event or festival you celebrated before

You should say:

When it was

Who you were with

What did you do

And explain why you like it

I would like to talk about how I celebrate spring festival with my family, which was an unforgettable experience for me.

I usually celebrate spring festival with my family every year, and even those living in other cities would come back during spring festival.

We would do many fun things together, like making dumplings, visiting relatives, and playing firecracks, among which my favorite thing to do is to make dumpling with my grandmother because I enjoy cooking for my family and my dumplings are very beautiful.

I really like spring festival for two reasons.

First, my hometown would be very beautiful during spring festival because it would usually be covered with snow, which is very romantic and pretty.

Second, I can see many family members and friends during spring festival because they would all come back for spring festivals, and we could spend some quality time together.

Describe an unforgettable meal you had

You should say:

When was it

Where you had the meal

What happened during the meal

And explain why it was unforgettable/how you felt about it

I would like to talk about a family dinner during spring festival at my grandmother's place, which was an unforgettable experience for me.

It was last year's new year's eve, and our whole family went to my grandmother's house to celebrate it together.

We did many fun things like making dumplings, making snowman and playing firecracks after dinner, among which my favorite thing to do is to learn how to make dumplings from my grandmother because I enjoy cooking for my family and I spent some quality time with my grandmother.

I think this meal was a memorable experience for two reasons.

First, it was the first time I learnt how to make dumplings, which was very interesting to me.

Second, I think this meal was a very happy experience because our whole family got together, even though those who live in other cities came back for the spring festival.

Describe an occasion when someone visit your home

You should say:

Who this person was

When it happened

What you did together

And explain how you felt about him or her visit

I would like to talk about how my friend Tom visited my home during spring festival, which was an unforgettable experience for me.

Tom is my best friends from university and he never saw my family in person and he would like to meet them. Therefore, I invited Tom to visit my hometown during spring festival.

Tom came home with me last winter after our final exams in university, and my hometown already looked festive. There were decorations everywhere in the city.

I really enjoyed his stay and we did many fun things together, like making dumplings, visiting my local friends together, and playing firecracks, among which my favorite thing to do is to make dumpling with him because it was his first time learning how to make dumplings.

Tom told me that he really like my family and he thought my hometown is very beautiful, and he invited me to visit his hometown during spring festival this year.

Describe something important you learned from a person or in a place

You should say:

When you learned it

Where/from who you learned it

How difficult it was to learn it

And explain how you felt about it

I would like to talk about how I learnt how to make dumplings from my grandmother, which is an unforgettable experience for me.

I learnt about this when I was visiting my grandmother during spring festival at 12 years old because my grandmother would make dumplings for our whole family during this festival.

At first, it was very difficult to me because I was very clumsy and I always broke the dumplings. However, after practicing for a dozen of times, I mastered the skill and I could make perfect dumplings.

I think it was a memorable experience for two reasons.

First, it was the first time I learnt how to make dumplings, which was very interesting to me. Second, I think it was a very happy experience because I spent some quality time with my grandma, and we both enjoyed it very much.
