I would like to talk about my iPhone 4, which was the first cellphone I ever had.

My mom gave me this iPhone 4 when I was in primary school because it was a gift from her friend but she didn't know how to use a smartphone at that time.

Therefore, she passed it on to me as a birthday gift.

iPhone 4 was the latest model at that time and the one I got is silver. It was about the size of my hand and it was very stylish.

I felt very excited to get this phone because I have downloaded many apps and therefore I could do so many fun things with it. For example, my favorite game at that time was Temple Run, which is an endless running game very popular at that time. Even though I no longer used iPhone 4, I still keep it as a memento.

I would like to talk about my Nokia 100, which was my first phone.

I really wanted a cellphone when I was in primary school because all my friends already got one. Therefore, I begged my parents to buy me a cell phone but they said I should save the money myself because it was not a necessity. Therefore, I started saving money everyday and I cut back on my snacks and toys. After a term, I finally got enough money for a cellphone and my father took me to a local store to buy a cell phone.

I picked Nokia 100 because it was the most popular one at that time and it was a flip cell phone and I chose the color red.

I really treasured it at that time because it was my first phone and I used it almost everyday to get in touch with my friends. Even though it was not a smart phone, I still spent a lot of time playing games on it.
